New Faculty MUST-DOs

- Sign up for Research Mentors Program for New Faculty
- Use the Pre-Submission Review Program
- Attend Planning and Writing Successful Grant Proposals seminar
- Apply for the Provost’s Office University Research Grant
- Sign up for and attend a Pivot workshop
- Attend Research and Academic Development (RAD) seminars
- Attend Vice President for Research’s Reception for New Faculty
- Meet your Associate Research Dean
- Contact Tim Foley, SPA Training, for assistance with the Cayuse Research Suite
- Meet with Corporate and Foundation Relations to discuss your work.

IMPORTANT DATES

SEPT 6
Seminar: Planning and Writing Successful Grant Proposals in the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

SEPT 18
Workshop: Fellowship and Grant Proposal Writing in the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

SEPT 23 • OCT 25 • NOV 14 • DEC 6
Workshop: How to Use Pivot to Search for External Funding

OCT 16
Deadline: Arts and Humanities Research Support Letters of Intent

OCT 18 • FEB 14
Deadline: Research Mentors Program for New Faculty

OCT 28
Seminar: Writing and Publishing High-Impact Research Manuscripts

NOV 14
RAD seminar: NIH Resubmissions: Responding to Reviewers’ Comments

NOV 21
Seminar: Planning and Writing Successful Grant Proposals

NOV 22
Seminar: How to Write a Successful NSF Career Proposal

NOV 29 • APR 10 • JUL 17
Deadline: Grants Boost applications

JAN 21
Seminar: Planning and Writing Successful Grant Proposals for Biomedical Research

JAN 22
Seminar: Writing Successful NIH Career Development (K) Award Applications

CONTINUOUS
Award for Graduate Students Who Obtain External Support requests

CONTINUOUS
Bridge Funding applications

CONTINUOUS
Faculty Competition for Postdoctoral Fellows application
Reviewed Nov 15 • Feb 15 • May 15 • Aug 15

CONTINUOUS
Funder Consultation Program requests

CONTINUOUS
Pre-Submission Review requests